DESERT RAT

The mid-day sun beats down on you, as you scan the dunes for any sign of enemy tanks or troops. It's not easy to see; the sun glares on the crystal sand, creating waves of shimmering light which play tricks on the eyes. But you must concentrate, for it would be disasterous to be ambushed in the middle of the wide open plains which surround you.

Suddenly, you see movement on a distant hill top. It's the enemy, massing for an attack. You leap into your desert vehicle as they spot you.

What follows is a non-stop, high-speed desert battle, where shells fly overhead and blast into tanks, leaving them tangled masses of moulten steel, graves in the middle of a distant, forgotten grave yard.

DESERT RAT—A high level challenge to the video gamesman.
